TAYLOR COLLECTION | YABU PUSHELBERG | STELLAR WORKS

Grounded in clean, comfortable and functional design, the studio sought to create a collection of essentials that effortlessly work together but are not tied to a specific genre. Taylor comprises dining chair and table, bar and counter stool, glass cabinet, sofa and lounge chair.

CHROME BY OXEN COLLECTION | NEXO LUCE

The Chrome series belongs to the Oxen collection, inspired by the Bauhaus school. It centers on clean, geometric forms and balanced visual composition in order to achieve a contemporary elegant look. This effect the lampshade was realized through the use of blown glass, either transparent or metallized in chrome, copper or gold; while the body structure is made of steel finished in chrome, nickel, copper or gold.

RILLY | GAMFRATESI | DEDON

The double daybed is an island of subtle shading that can be placed anywhere to enjoy the surroundings in a comfortable and sheltered space. Friendly in its form, it features a fixed canopy that invites users to cocoon themselves in shady comfort. The overall effect is one of lightness combined with solidity, achieved with the combination of weave and powder-coated aluminum.
